Gail Sheehy is a cultural observer and bestselling author of 15 books. Her original landmark work, Passages, remained on The New York Times bestseller list for more than three years, and has been reprinted in 28 languages. A Library of Congress survey named Passages one of the ten most influential books of our time. Ms. Sheehy is now working on a book about family caregiving and the crisis facing 44 million Americans who are taking care of adults at home or long distance. Ms. Sheehy is a seven-time recipient of the New York Newswomen's Club Front Page Award for distinguished journalism. Other honors include the national Magazine Award, the Penny-Missouri Journalism Award, and the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award in Race Relations for her book, Spirit of Survival.
